

In the Eyes of the Heart 7

Taiban Wang | 14 x 19 cm, paper-based watercolor

This painting represents the seventh artwork that the artist Taibin Wang has created on this topic. It depicts a glance, partially opaque, that is disfigured on one side. It seems that the only value of the person is the eyes, whereas the rest is not alive. With this glance, the artist represents how the person is alive and how his heart is beating, with his eyes. In the eyes of the heart, he says “Hello, Mr. Sorrow!”

Taibin Wang was born in Dezhou, Shandong Province, China, in 1995. He graduated from the oil painting department of Shandong Art College in 2018. He is Chairman of the Board of Directors of Jiuling Creative Painting Society and a special painter of Wu Guanzhong Art Museum. The artist is now living and studying in Jinan, China.

Description by Jorge L. Alió

The “Miradas” competition was created by Jorge Alió, Journal of Refractive Surgery Editorial Board Member, and his wife, Maria Lopez, in 1998 with the intention of using artistic sensibility to bring society’s attention to the phenomenon of sight, vision, and blindness. “Miradas,” which means glances, is a contest in which artwork is sent from Spain and many international countries from the four continents for the Miradas International Artwork Competition every two years. Each cover of the Journal of Refractive Surgery features paintings that were submitted to this competition. “Miradas” is sponsored by Biotech, Ireland. For more information, contact www.fundacionalio.com
